

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

January 22, 2007

Contact: Leonard Finkel, 760 -- 727 -- 2663

Maximus Staff Professional Roger Gunn Named "Top 100" Instructor

Vista, CA -Maximus is proud to announce that staff professional and spokesperson Roger Gunn has just been named to the prestigious 2007 Golf Magazine "Top 100" teachers list. Roger has worked with the Maximus product line almost from its inception and has been instrumental in developing a training program that utilizes both the Maximus and Medicus swing trainers. Maximus inventor Tom Anderson says, "We've always had the utmost confidence in Rogers's abilities. His being named to the Top 100 teacher's indicates that people in the industry have officially recognized what we've known for years. Roger has been a great asset. He is a tremendous golf instructor and an even better person!"

The consummate teaching professional, Roger has worked with PGA professionals including Tom Lehman, Steve Pate, Jay Delsing and Trevor Dodds. Among others, his celebrity students include Will Smith, Pierce Brosnan, Gary Sinise, Bob Eubanks and Richard Roundtree. In a distinguished playing career, Roger has won more than 25 professional tournaments worldwide. A multiple time participant at the U.S. Open, Roger also played two years full-time on the European PGA Tour. He played collegiately at UCLA where he achieved all Pac-10 honors. Among other teaching awards, Roger is a former Southern California PGA Teacher of the Year.

Additional information about the Maximus and Medicus family of swing trainers is available by contacting Leonard Finkel at 760 -- 727 -- 2663 or glfgd@aol.com. Press information and images are available at medicusco.com. Additional information on Roger Gunn is available at www.GolfLevels.com.